FONTAINE ANNOUNCES NEW TRAINING/TROUBLESHOOTING WEBSITE AT FIFTHWHEEL.COM

IRONDALE, ALABAMA -- Fontaine International now provides training and troubleshooting for their customers 24 hours a day 7 days a week. To use the site go to "www.fifthwheel.com" and follow the link: "Click Here for New Training/Troubleshooting site".

This information-packed site includes training videos, interactive troubleshooting support, helpful publications and answers to FAQ's that will help drivers, maintenance personnel and fleet managers work smarter and more efficiently.

Click on "Troubleshooting" to open an interactive guide that helps you solve fifth wheel problems quickly and easily. Simply follow the links until the problem is solved. Solutions are supported with plenty of videos and illustrations to help keep it simple.

Click on "Pre-Trip" for on-line training videos and publications that help drivers couple and uncouple safely. Handy instructions and quick-start publications are available to read or print.

Click on "Maintenance" for on-line videos and publications that help you keep your equipment in tip-top condition so you can get years of smooth operating, trouble-free performance from your Fontaine fifth wheel.

Click on "Rebuild" for on-line videos and printable step-by-step instructions to ensure your repaired product will operate just like a brand new fifth wheel.

Training and troubleshooting has never been this easy, and it is available 24/7 thanks to Fontaine International. For more information, contact Ward Kolpack, Fontaine International, 5000 Grantswood Road, Suite 200, Irondale, Alabama 35210. Phone: 800-874-9780. Fax: 205-421-4400.
